4. Concept of Materiality

Information is material if its misstatement i.e. omission or erroneous statement, could influence the economic decisions taken by the user, based on such financial statements. Accordingly, financial statements should disclose all material items, i.e. knowledge of which might influence the decision of the user of financial statements simultaneously protecting the confidentiality of Material / Price sensitive information within the context of the Company’s disclosure obligations. It endeavours to provide a framework that supports and fosters confidence in the quality and integrity of information released by the Company.

5. Criteria for Determination of Materiality

Pursuant to Regulation 30(4) of the Listing Regulations the criteria for determination of materiality of events/ information is as follows:

- (a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- (c) the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
  - (1) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
  - (2) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
  - (3) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity.

In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed entity, the event or information is considered material:

Provided that any continuing event or information which becomes material pursuant to notification of the aforesaid amendment regulations shall be disclosed by the listed entity within thirty days from the date of coming into effect of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2023.

6. Disclosures of events and information and their timelines:

Every listed entity is required to make disclosures of any events or information which in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed entity is material. The listed entity shall first disclose to the stock exchange(s) all events or information which are material in terms of the 30(6) of the Listing Regulations as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:

- (i) thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the board of directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;
- (ii) twelve hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is emanating from within the listed entity;
- (iii) twenty -four hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is not emanating from within the listed entity:

Provided further that in case the disclosure is made after the timelines specified under this regulation, the Company shall, along with such disclosure provide the explanation for the delay.

The Company shall make disclosure to the stock exchange updating the material developments pertaining to material events on regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed with relevant explanations.

Further, disclosures with respect to events for which timelines have been specified in Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations shall be made within such stipulated timelines.

The Company may on its own initiative also, confirm or deny any reported event or information in the mainstream media to the stock exchange, which is not general in nature and which indicates that rumors of an impending specific material event or information in terms of provisions of Regulation 30 of Listing Regulations are circulating amongst the investing public. Provided further that if the Company confirms the reported event or information, it shall also provide the current stage of such event or information.

The Company shall provide specific and adequate reply to all queries raised by stock exchange(s) with respect to any events or information provided that the stock exchange shall disseminate information and clarification as soon as reasonably practicable.

The Listing Regulations have divided the events that need to be disclosed broadly into the following categories:

Category A

Events which shall be disclosed without any application of the guidelines for materiality as specified in sub-regulation (4) of regulation (30). These events are indicated in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations.

Category B

Events which shall be disclosed upon application of the guidelines for materiality referred sub-regulation (4) of regulation (30). These events are indicated in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations. Apart from this the entity has the responsibility to make disclosures that are appropriate and would be consistent with the facts of each event. If in any case the entity does not disclose any such details, it shall state appropriate reasoning for the same as a part of the disclosure.

Category C

Any other information/event viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the listed entity which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the listed entity to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

Category D

Without prejudice to the generality of para (A), (B) and (C) above, the listed entity may make disclosures of event/information as specified by SEBI from time to time.

In case where an event occurs or an information is available with the listed entity, which has not been indicated in Para A or B of Part A of Schedule III, but which may have material effect on it, the listed entity is required to make adequate disclosures in regard thereof.

In case an event or information is required to be disclosed in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, pursuant to the receipt of a communication from any regulatory, statutory, enforcement or judicial authority, the Company shall disclose such communication, along with the event or information, unless disclosure of such communication is prohibited by such authority.
